

EPWORTH LEAGUE CONVENTION IN FULL SWING

DELEGATES FROM ALL PARTS OF PASADENA DISTRICT GATHER IN GLENDALE AND ARE GIVEN THE GLAD HAND OF WELCOME BY MAYOR WOODBERRY, REV. SNUDDEN AND LEAGUERS

By five o'clock Friday afternoon the stage was set for the big Epworth League Convention. For two days clustered flags had waved from the decorated electrolliers on the business thoroughfares in festive welcoming, flags were draped at the entrance to the First Methodist Church, advertising that here was the rallying point. From the basement banquet hall came appetizing odors of the supper to be served on the long tables which filled the room and which had been made bright with carnations of red and white, the League colors. The white posts were also wound with red and there were pennants of U. S. C. to remind members of the big drive for that institution soon to be on. Places had been set for 400 guests and all were needed. Afterward the diners were enthusiastic over the catering, for which the Ladies' Aid of the church were responsible. It was a perfectly delicious meal, they said, and splendidly organized with Mrs. Russell in charge to direct and marshal a large corps of efficient waitresses.

Upstairs was a busy place, too, with pages flying about directing delegates to registration tables and giving miscellaneous information. The auditorium, empty though it still was, had an expectant, swept and garnished look. At one side of the platform was a beautiful service banner to be dedicated that evening, and floral decorations of scarlet lilies, red carnations and syringas suggested the colors of the organization.

The evening service was advertised for 7:15, but it didn't begin until later, when the orchestra of the Glendale M. E. Church took their places and furnished some excellent music.

Then J. B. Clarke of Casa Verdugo, who has a fine, big, mellow voice, led in the singing of "Onward Christian Soldier," "Since Jesus Came into My Heart," and the Convention song, "Keep the League Fires Burning." He also sang most beautifully the solo number, "For He Shall Give His Angels Charge Over Thee."

The president, J. Ross Jennings of Pasadena, then took charge of the meeting in a very efficient manner, introducing speakers in a pleasant, easy way without too much circumlocution, and responding in a fitting and appreciative manner to the words of greeting offered by Mayor G. B. Woodberry and Rev. B. Dudley Snudden.

Mayor Woodberry was of course the first speaker. He said:

"Young ladies and gentlemen of the Epworth League, gathered for your sixteenth annual convention, we are glad to have you with us tonight. Glendale gives you greeting and her citizens extend a most hearty welcome. We love our little city of Glendale, so happily situated among the encircling hills of California. People sometimes call it the 'Jewel City.' Our municipal motto is: 'A clean city kept clean.'"

"We welcome you because you come from a number of such cities set along the feet of the Mother Mountains of California somewhat like pearls or diamonds, and we know you have the same pleasant homes and the same ideals."

"The cardinal principle of the Epworth League is democracy, which, in its shortest sense, is the administration of the government by the people. Consequently with Epworth League young people training here to govern themselves it can not be but that in the future they will be better prepared for government in the great democracy of America. We welcome you because of this."

"One purpose of the League is the promotion of intelligence and vital piety. Piety may be briefly defined as duty to God and duty to parents. If you as young people have this kind of piety you will be well fitted to perform your duties in the world. We welcome you because of this."

"It is the pride of the League to provide well equipped and well developed leaders. If this plan is carried out it will provide well equipped and well disciplined leadership to carry out democracy's great work, which has been mapped out for this great country, and we welcome you because of this."

"I assure you we are glad you are here, and if the city of Glendale had gates, they would be unlocked and the keys thrown away during your stay. We hope you will like us well enough to come again."

Rev. B. Dudley Snudden, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Glendale, extended the welcome of the church in a speech which he made very brief because the program was behind its time schedule. He said:

"You are well come. I watched the Cadillac, the Packards, the Fords and all the rest of them arrive and I know you are well come. (Applause.) I did not see any teams of oxen from the wilderness, nor did any enter this building with hayseed in their hair. You came with youth, good looks, vivacity and enthusiasm."

"We have prayed for this convention these many months, in our Epworth League. We have been praying that this time you may catch the great vision of Jesus Christ, that you shall see Him as the great character for all mankind. I have prayed that before this convention shall close all of us shall wait for the new coming of the Divine Spirit among us."

"I am glad to see so many young men here. Five hundred of our League men have gone. Some of them will not come back, and I pray tonight that a lot of these younger men will take up the tasks they have laid down. Let us ask ourselves one question: Are we really worth the price these boys are going to pay that we may have peace and enjoy these opportunities? Get a mighty vision of the task and make it worth while."

In his response the district president and chairman, J. Ross Jennings, said:

DESTROY GERMAN GAS BATTERY

AMERICAN TROOPS ENGAGE ENEMY WHILE FRENCH RAID GERMAN TRENCHES AND CAPTURE PRISONERS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WITH THE AMERICAN FORCES IN FRANCE, May 11.—American heavy artillery on the Picardy front is shelling German reserve positions behind Parc-de-Grivesnes and Framincourt. New fires were observed at Montdidier after the bombardment of that city and it is believed that a German ammunition dump at Cantigny has exploded. German attempts to capture American outposts were frustrated.

In the Lorraine sector American artillery northwest of Toul today outguessed the Germans and permitted the French to make a successful raid. The Boches were discovered establishing a gas projective battery at the junction of the American and French lines, planning to sweep both with the vapor. American gunners destroyed the battery. The Germans, fearing an American attack, directed their bombardment at the American sector, allowing the French to raid the German trenches and capture prisoners and information.

HAIG REPORTS SUCCESSFUL RAIDS NEAR MERVILLE AND REPULSE OF ENEMY AT YPRES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
LONDON, May 11.—The French advanced their lines northeast of Loire, taking a number of prisoners, General Haig reported. The British raid east of Merville was successful, and the German raid east of Ypres was successfully defeated by heavy gun fire.

FIVE AMERICAN OFFICERS CAPTURED

SIXTY-SIX NAMES IN PERSHING'S CASUALTY LIST, ANNOUNCED BY THE WAR DEPARTMENT TODAY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, May 11.—Today's casualty list included five officers captured, eight men killed in action, four dead of wounds, four dead of disease, four accidentally killed, three dead from other causes, four severely wounded, thirty-four slightly wounded.

GERMANY THREATENS BOLSHEVIKI

DEMANDS THAT RUSSIA MUST STOP ARMING TROOPS OR GERMANY WILL OCCUPY MOSCOW

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
MOSCOW, May 11.—German Ambassador von Mirbach today issued an ultimatum to the Bolsheviki demanding that they stop arming troops and disband those now armed, also make a quick settlement of the question involving the transportation of German prisoners home.

He mentioned the possibility of Germany occupying Moscow as an alternative.

FIVE KILLED IN OSTEND RAID

MOTOR BOATS USED TO RESCUE CREW OF VINDICTIVE SUNK TO BOTTLE UP GERMAN BASE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
DOVER, May 11.—Navy officials report that five were killed, thirty wounded and ten are missing, as the result of the Ostend operation.

The obsolete cruiser, Vindictive, 320 feet long, lies quartering the channel, which is 327 feet wide.

The work of motor boats in rescuing members of the crew from the wreck after the Vindictive had been sunk amid a hail of bullets is heartily commended.

AMERICANS GREETED IN LONDON

MANY SEE PARADE OF UNITED STATES TROOPS AT KING GEORGE'S REVIEW AND RECEPTION

LONDON, May 11.—Thousands banked the streets and parks today along the route taken by the American troops in their parade through the heart of London.

The enthusiasm evident everywhere surpassed even that of the thrilling days of 1914.

This was the official review and reception of American troops by King George.

FOR THE RED STAR

LOS ANGELES, May 11.—Dumb animals did their bit today for those of their own kind who are fighting "over there."

The occasion was a pageant, conducted largely by Los Angeles school children, for the benefit of the Red Star Animal Relief. The fancy dogs and the thoroughbred horses and many another beast had a part in the pageant, which was held at Bovard Field.

WAR WORK FIRST

MOTTO OF DISTRICT FEDERATION BOARD MEETING AT HOME OF THE PRESIDENT

Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, of 106 South Orange street, president of the District Federation of Women's Clubs, opened her home for a luncheon and business session to members of her executive board Thursday. Her perfectly appointed table, at which covers were laid for twenty-three, was centered with fragrant red roses which furnished the color note carried out in the bon bon boxes used as favors, and in the dessert, a confection of crimson gelatine garnished with whipped cream, which the hostess furnished, together with coffee and bread and butter, for it is the inflexible rule at these semi-official functions that the responsibility for providing the lunch shall be shared, each guest furnishing enough of some one thing for three. In this instance one lady broke over the rule by bringing enough delicious chili con carne beans to serve all who came, otherwise the regulation was observed, the menu including besides the items mentioned, devilled eggs and cake. The clean plate injunction was also respected and when all was over there was nothing for the garbage pail, the scheme having worked out with absolutely no waste. Such a demonstration of efficiency, patriotism and economy in connection with a meal which, while strictly Hooverized was thoroughly artistic and delicious, was most gratifying.

It put the ladies in an excellent frame of mind to consider the important matters brought before them. These included plans for the next president's council, to be held some time in June, with all of the old and new club presidents, also the new and the retiring board members who have served two years. All seemed to feel that the most important thing to bring about is the extension of war activities in the clubs, which have made a wonderful record in the drives for bonds, Red Cross, Y. M. C. A. and other things for which appeals have been made. One means of promotion suggested was to ask clubs to introduce the lecturers on war subjects into their programs as much as possible. It was agreed that most of the clubs have been exceedingly loyal and done everything necessary to be done, but at the coming president's council, methods by which the war activities can be made general throughout the club membership instead of being limited to a percentage of the enrollment will be discussed.

Mrs. Bicknell, treasurer of the Victory War Fund for Furlough Homes for Soldiers, reported that $5,820 had been collected from the various clubs and stated further that the fund would be kept open definitely for subscriptions. The district committee voted to take a box at the San Gabriel Mission play to be given Saturday afternoon, May 25th, as a benefit for the fund by the Schubert Club of Los Angeles. Other clubs and organizations are securing boxes in order to insure to the Schubert (Continued on Page 2)

WILLIAMSWEAR BRANCH

The Williams Dry Goods Company, who have been manufacturing a line of women's house and porch dresses known as Williamsweat, have opened a branch store in Pasadena for the purpose of retailing this line. The store opened Monday with Miss Laura Anderson, who has been connected with the company for a long time, in charge. A room was secured on Colorado street opposite the Maryland hotel, where the garments are attractively displayed.

Mr. Williams began designing and manufacturing these gowns less than a year ago and the business has had a steady and substantial growth. The garments are sold to retailers in Buffalo, N. Y., various points in Montana and Arizona, as well as a number of Southern California cities. Every one of these dresses carries the label, "Made in Glendale," and as they are distinctive in design and manufacture, are the best kind of publicity for the city. Mr. Williams says reports from the Pasadena venture have been very satisfactory.

MONARCH CO. MAKES CHANGES

The Monarch Company's store, 421 South Brand, does not have its usual attractive appearance, due to the fact that many changes are under way.

They have dropped the Chevrolet agency and will now devote themselves entirely to the tire, accessory and vulcanizing business.

After removing a partition which now partially divides their showroom, they will be able to display their goods to much better advantage.

SMILEAGE RALLY

FINAL EFFORT IN SMILEAGE WEEK DRIVE AT PALACE GRAND TONIGHT

All reports from those in charge of the Smileage book campaign indicate that the people of Glendale are taking hold with a will. While it is impossible to secure any official returns today, Roy L. Kent, secretary, reports that the Catholic church has turned in $28, the Methodist church $40 and more coming, the Elks Lodge $60 and $50 more expected.

The big rally tonight is expected to take the drive well beyond the $600 apportioned for this city. Attorney Oliver O. Clark is to speak in the interest of the Smileage campaign at the Palace Grand Theatre and Mr. Kent and W. R. Phelon are to assist him in selling the books. P. N. McGillis, local chairman, states that he is sure the $700 mark has already been passed.

A HORSE-MEAT MARKET

Mrs. C. W. Chalfant, of Portland, Ore., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mellish and a former resident of Glendale, has written her about the market there for the sale of horse meat, which is an established industry. She says the horses used are the wild ponies from the Oregon ranges. They are killed under regular government inspection, the same as beef. She encloses a big two-column ad. of horse meat which is 5c per pound for "plate boil," 7c flank boil, 8c pot roasts, 10c round, sirloin and rib steak, 12½c for "wieners" and 20c for dried meat.

WHO WANTS A GARDEN?

Here is a splendid opportunity for some one who wants to raise a garden this summer. Mrs. E. W. Richardson took charge of a number of lots which she expected to cultivate this summer, but owing to the fact that her two young sons will be busy at other work, there are five of these lots she will be unable to care for. The lots have been plowed three times, have been fertilized and water is convenient. This is a great chance for some one.

JUDGE LOWE SPEAKS

At the Presbyterian church tomorrow morning, 11 o'clock, in connection with the regular service, Judge Lowe, Glendale's city judge, will speak for ten minutes on some home conditions as he knows them to exist in our city. This talk is a part of the "Family Talks" program now being carried out at the evening service. There should be a large attendance to hear Judge Lowe.

WILL RICHARDSON ON FURLOUGH

Mrs. E. W. Richardson was made happy by the receipt of a "Mothers' Day" postal from her son, E. Will Richardson, who is with the Military Police at Camp Lewis. The card contained the following quotation:

"To the Best Mother Who Ever Lived—My Mother:
"For the body you gave me, the bone and the sinew, the heart and the brain that are yours, My Mother, I thank you. I thank you for the light in my eyes and the blood in my veins, for my speech, for my life, for my being. All that I am is from you who bore me."—Tom Dillon.

Later Mrs. Richardson was made still happier when the following wire came:

"Camp Lewis, May 9.
"Dear Mother—Furlough received and will leave Camp Lewis Friday and next stop will be home. Everything fine and will enjoy the trip down on Limited. Hope that Bert will be there and the boys not too busy with their studies while I am home. Regards to all."

A WAR NURSE

Miss Mary Erskine, sister of Don Erskine of 300 Blanche avenue, has received her commission from the government to go to France as a Red Cross nurse. It reached her about two weeks ago and she expects to leave on her long journey about the first of June. She was graduated from a nurses' training school last June but took up post graduate work which she did not complete until February of the present year, but her application to be sent abroad in the war service has been on file for some time. She has been eager to go for a long time and has made every effort to equip herself for efficient service. Her friends will miss her but are ready to wish her Godspeed on her mission.

Club sufficient financial backing to meet all expenses so that general receipts may be clear for the fund. Mrs. Jones and her co-workers are anxious to have it generally known that the clubs are taking up the matter and that it is under direction of the commissioners at Washington. It is thoroughly approved by President Wilson, and Colonel Fosdyck, representing the government, is now abroad seeking suitable locations for these Furlough Homes.

One of the important items of business was the adoption of a resolution endorsing Mrs. George E. Larkey of Casa Verdugo, who is chairman of Country Life for the Los Angeles District, for appointment as a director of the Farm Bureau of Los Angeles County, on which board the district is entitled to have two members. Mrs. Larkey is credited with a large amount of work in connection with this organization and the members of the District Federation Board felt it was but right she should receive the appointment and so indicated in an official communication to Professor Coit, the Director of the Bureau. It was reported that Riverside's Farm Bureau has placed two or three women on its board of directors. The work in Los Angeles County has increased in importance, Mrs. Jones says, since the government made appropriations for the employment of demonstrators in food conservation work.

The three legislative measures which the Federation will support were also discussed.

The guest list included the following officers of the district: Mrs. J. B. Stearns, first vice-president, and Mrs. Sidney Thomas Exley, recording secretary, both of Los Angeles; Mrs. Goss of Glendale, the corresponding secretary, was unable to be present and was represented by Mrs. A. L. Weaver, of this city, former corresponding secretary; Mrs. F. A. H. Fish, auditor, of San Gabriel.

Department chairmen who were guests included Mrs. William H. Bowden of Los Angeles, Art; Dr. Louise May Richter, Child Welfare; Mrs. W. A. Galentine of Redondo, Civics; Mrs. Frederick W. Houser of Alhambra, Flood Control; Mrs. F. G. Bicknell of Los Angeles, Bird and Wild Life; Mrs. Charles M. Kite of South Pasadena, Scenery and Parks; Mrs. George E. Larkey of Casa Verdugo, Country Life; Mrs. J. W. Deupree of Lankershim, Good Roads; Mrs. L. A. Beebe of Los Angeles, Home Economics; Mrs. Mae Creveling of Los Angeles, Department of Employment under Industrial and Social Service; Mrs. J. A. Rominger of Long Beach, Literature; Mrs. Bessie Bartlett Frankel and Mrs. A. R. Gates, both of Hollywood, Music; Mrs. C. H. Ritchie of Pasadena, Political Science; Dr. Lulu Peters of Los Angeles, Public Health; Mrs. Harold A. Gilman of Los Angeles, Parliamentary Usage; Mrs. Harriet Wright of Sierra Madre, Federation Emblems; Mrs. J. Frank Stout of Downey, International Relations; Miss Bessie Carrick of Los Angeles, Press; Miss Mary Foy, Pasadena, War Emergency Work.

Thirty-six members of the Board in Ventura and Santa Barbara counties were unable to be present. Mrs. Jones feels she is to be congratulated upon the fact that in troubled times like the present her fellow workers in the District, from officers and chairmen down to individual members, are co-operating with her and with each other in the greatest harmony and especially are they recognizing the necessity of caring for the child of today as the most precious asset of the state. They feel that we can not afford to lose any children through ignorance, lack of sanitation or any preventable cause. For this reason the Federation, in addition to its other activities, is planning to heartily co-operate in the "Child Welfare Drive" which the government has instituted this month.

Mrs. R. L. Hendricks entertained twenty-five ladies Thursday afternoon at her home, 804 West Fifth street, at a progressive whist party.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Offutt of 1004 1/2 West Broadway moved to Wilmington last Wednesday. Mr. Offutt is employed in the ship yards there.

George Marsh of 843 San Rafael street is still with the convoy fleet plying back and forth across the Atlantic. Since the first of May he has been at Newport News, but is probably on the high seas now.

An important meeting of the British Ambulance Society will be held Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the headquarters of the organization over the Bank of Glendale, corner of Broadway and Glendale avenue. All members are urged to be present.

Mrs. Joseph Marple of 149 Palmer avenue is having the great pleasure of entertaining her father, E. J. Besant of Centralia, Illinois, who will be here for several weeks. It is possible he will bring his wife and children here to make their permanent home.

Patrons of the Cranford Musicals will be interested to know that the gown worn by Mrs. Bessie Fuhrer Erb, leader of the orchestra, was worn at the inauguration of a Governor of California in 1864, and also that the services of the orchestra were given free of charge.

W. H. La Fountain of 131 West Acacia street announces that he will be glad to have a piece of ground which he owns on North Brand boulevard near the wash, used for agricultural purposes. The legal description of the property is Lot 18, Block 14, and it extends from Brand to Maryland.

Lewis McGee, of 428 South Isabel street, is still on the Destroyer Decatur as electrician. It is his job to help in putting enemy submarines out of commission. When he comes home he says he will have a lot of thrilling stories to tell, but now, under the orders of Uncle Sam, he must keep mum.

Mrs. Kara F. Root, Mrs. Ruby J. Smart and Mrs. Mary L. Moore of the Glendale city Woman's Christian Temperance Union have been in attendance since last Monday at the State W. C. T. U. Convention of Southern California in Bakersfield. Mrs. Root was re-elected as state corresponding secretary with headquarters in Los Angeles.

Through some inadvertence, the fact that Mrs. John T. Crampton filled the role of "Mrs. Forrester," the hostess in the beautiful Cranford musicale, was omitted in the account as published in this paper. It was an omission by no means intended, as Mrs. Crampton was perfect and altogether delightful in her impersonation and in the comedy musical numbers in which she figured.

Lawrence Lawson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lawson of 246 North Kenwood street, this city, who is in the Balloon Section of the Aviation Service, has recently been moved from the camp at Waco, Texas, to Fort Sills, Oklahoma. He is still in quarantine, but writes that it is a beautiful camp, the best he has seen yet, with elegant beds, hot and cold water, shower baths and everything for the comfort and welfare of the men. In addition to his Lieutenantcy he has been made Supply Officer of the company and does all the buying for the men, a position of considerable responsibility for so young a man, only 21, and it also involves no small amount of bookkeeping. He was too young for the draft and entered the army as an enlisted man. His parents are exceedingly proud of the record he has made thus far. Mrs. Lawson has an excellent picture of the company, which has four physicians and three officers.

SWEATER YARN HERE

The sweater yarn is now at Red Cross headquarters and will be given out to knitters who call for it Monday. MRS. E. F. PARKER.

EPWORTH LEAGUE NOTES

Nearly 500 Leaguers from the Pasadena District sat down to "Camp Mess" in the banquet hall of the First Methodist Church. The baseball boys of the Glendale Union High School, who will play against a picked team of Epworth Leaguers on the High School grounds Saturday at 3:30 p. m., were guests of the Leaguers at the "Camp Mess." When called upon to stand, the boys gave their High School yell.

Everything is going off nicely and delegates are continuing to arrive from the faraway points.

This afternoon there will be a ball game on the High School campus between the League team and the High School team. At its close automobiles will convey the delegates to Griffith Park to enjoy a picnic "wienie" supper.

At the evening program, which will open at 7:15, fifteen League members from all parts of the district will respond to call under "Fifteen Shots in Thirty Minutes," the male quartet of the South Pasadena League will sing. Horace C. Whiteman, Secretary of the Conference Board, will give some "Echoes," and Prof. Tully C. Knowles of U. S. C. will make the address.

Sunday delegates will be entertained free of charge at their places of entertainment and at five o'clock will be entertained by the local Leaguers of Glendale, Tropico, Casa Verdugo and Eagle Rock, etc., in the banquet room of the church.

The program for Sunday is as follows:

Sunday Afternoon
 3:30—"Hand to Hand Combat," Rev. Leo F. Kline, Eagle Rock.
 3:50—Convention Song.
 3:55—Installation of Officers.
 4:10—Duet, Misses Margaret Lusby and Eva Thede, Glendale First Church.
 4:15—Address, "Is the Epworth League a Camouflage?" Rev. A. Ray Moore, Dist. Supt. Pasadena Dist.

"The Old Man"

Are you doing your full duty to yourself as well as to your family, when you secure life insurance providing only against your death? While you may die prematurely, if you are able to pass our doctor you are more likely to live to 65 or even 70. Such being true, consider the following:

Of all men living at age 45, 80 per cent are prosperous, contented, more or less successful in business, are laying up money and are therefore independent. Take the same men 20 years later, at age 65, and of those living but 3 per cent are independent, or self-sustaining. Moral: Secure a long endowment in "The Provident," thus securing an income whether you live or die.

OUR RESERVE AGENT

City Clerk J. C. Sherer has just received an honorary appointment under the Director of the U. S. Public Service, to serve as Reserve Agent in this county to enroll members, attest certificates of enrollment, distribute buttons and exercise such other powers as may from time to time be delegated to him under the instructions of the Federal Director of the Reserve for California. This is a service under the Department of Labor, and civilians are urged to enroll for farm labor of any sort. Mr. Sherer has blanks for enrollment and can give full information to all inquirers, men or women, who are ready to do their bit where they are most needed.

THIRD STREET P. T. A.

The Third street Parent-Teacher Association will hold its last meeting of the year Monday afternoon at 3:15. Officers for the new year will be elected and several items of business attended to which are of interest to all the members.

Miss Ada Cheever will give a reading and there will be a piano number. Mrs. W. A. Galentine, District President of the Congress of Mothers and prominent in all women's club work, will give a short talk on "Children's Rights."

DOINGS AT ST. MARK'S CHURCH

Notwithstanding the fact that St. Mark's Church is now without a rector, the Rev. C. Irving Mills, owing to his ill health, having found it necessary to cease active church work, and having resigned, the affairs of the church are, nevertheless, progressing nicely.

At the regular meeting of the vestry of the church held Wednesday evening, LeRoy W. Bosserman, an active worker in the church, and E. L. Young, lay reader, were unanimously elected vestrymen. Charles H. Hamilton, also an active worker in the church and a vestryman, was elected senior warden and treasurer.

Mrs. LeRoy W. Bosserman, whose very able directing of the choir has resulted in such wonderful rendition of the musical service of the church, and who, owing to her continuous church work and social activities found it necessary to rest from these activities, has again consented to the direction of the choir, having been given full authority over it by the vestry.

A choir guild is to be formed, to be composed of the mothers of the boys of the choir. A movement has been started for the beautifying of the church grounds, and work is to be started immediately. The congregation and Sunday School are showing a marked improvement in point of numbers.

The vestry of St. Mark's extend a cordial invitation to all visiting and new resident Episcopalians to attend Divine Services held every Sunday morning at eleven o'clock.

 red and if we paint it a good clean red we know it will please you a little bit better. We are here to catch the vision Mr. Snudden has spoken of. I know the thing will be attained which we want to get."

Miss Georgia Williams, a dear little girl in a pale blue dress, who is a wonderful whistler, set a Victrola to playing and to its accompaniment whistled three numbers in response to enthusiastic encores, one a medley of patriotic airs beginning with the "Star-Spangled Banner," at which the audience came to its feet, and the last a mockingbird song, which was original and charming.

Dr. C. O. Kimball, pastor of the Glendora Methodist Church, made a fervent patriotic prayer for those who are in the battle line and for those who will take up their tasks at home.

Following this prayer announcements were made by President Jennings which included the personnel of committees as follows:

Resolutions—A. Howard Sadler of Pasadena, Helen Hartley of Upland, Clarence Robertson of Monrovia.

Nominations—H. J. Buckner of Azusa, Miss Marian Whiteman of Alhambra, W. D. Harkness of Glendale, Miss Pearl Newcomb, of San Bernardino, Rev. Charles H. Scott of Ontario, and Dr. A. Ray Moore of South Pasadena.

Announcement was also made of the picnic trip to Griffith Park from the High School grounds at 5 o'clock Saturday, with a request for automobiles to convey delegates to the park.

phrase, made an appeal for a collection to meet current expenses of the convention and ushers passed the plate.

Carl V. Cooper of South Pasadena, the efficient secretary of the organization, who is also an effective speaker, presented to the League a beautiful service flag bearing 325 stars for that many members who have gone into the national army and are now in camps in the United States or have gone across the sea. In this connection he challenged the shirkers and made a strong appeal to young men to realize their doubled responsibilities and rise to the occasion. He stated that one out of every nine of the senior membership of the District is now in the army, which means that in every chapter with a membership of 27, three will be absent until the end of the war or perhaps forever. He also spoke of the percentage of young men in chapters and cabinets which has dwindled steadily since America entered the war. In 1914 it dropped to 24 per cent, and at present it amounts to 20 per cent. He also mentioned the six young ladies, members of the League, who have volunteered as Red Cross nurses, and the seven young men who are serving as Y. M. C. A. secretaries.

E. Hilmer Carlson, of San Bernardino, accepted the service banner on behalf of the League, mentioning the pathos of the service flags displayed at the private homes. "The League," he said, "has sent its best to the battlefield. It does not hold back because the form of service has changed. We can not rightly honor these men unless we realize the many opportunities for service which have been left to us. Each one of us should make constant sacrifices to assist our government in this time of need."

Miss Myranna Richards of Pasadena, a little woman with a big voice and lots of passion in it, thrilled the audience with some patriotic songs: "There's a Happy Time Coming When the Boys Come Home" and "What Are You Fighting For?"

Lincoln A. Ferris of San Diego, who stated that he is comparatively new to this coast, was then introduced and made the leading and most eloquent address, which was an inspiration to all present. His appreciative reference to his old friend, Julius Soper of Glendale, drew applause. His theme was: "Endure Hardness as good soldiers of Jesus Christ," which he paraphrased as "Take your part in suffering as good soldiers of Jesus Christ." His speech was epigrammatic, full of strong declarations. He said:

"We have been living in a new world since 1914; we are thinking in new terms. We have been driven out of provincialism and have taken on new habits. There was never a time when the Gospel came with such brave utterances as now. Its majesty has been restored. The tragedy of the world has been to have the form without the faith itself. "A new generation that has had to drill will make a new Epworth League in the Methodist Church. I tell you: Stick to the Kingdom of Jesus Christ and take the drill. Live out your lives to the levels of your faith."

"The last man to be forgiven for ignorance is the Christian man. The ploughshares of God are making a new seedling ground for civilization."

"God bless the nation that has dared to set the prows of her vessels across the Atlantic that Freedom shall stay upon the earth."

"The manhood of today is the most magnificent manhood the world has ever seen."
